

Sunburn Crossword Puzzle

Across

1. A measure of how frequently light waves move up and down.
3. The force that attracts or repels certain metals, responsible for the North and South poles on Earth.
7. A form of light you can see.
9. The spreading of light rays in all directions.
10. A form of invisible light whose wavelength is just longer than that of the color red.
11. The up-and-down shape of waves.
12. A combination of electric and magnetic forces.

Down

2. A form of energy created by charged particles like electrons.
4. The length between two peaks in a wave.
5. A form of invisible light whose frequency is just higher than that of the color violet.
6. A form of invisible light that is often used for communication.
8. A form of invisible light that is very high energy and is used to see inside our bodies.

Created by Puzzlemaker at DiscoveryEducation.com